People were lined up for on-site registration a couple of hours before we opened the door. There was a new sense of anticipation for this San Diego Sessions, as folks from this region joined with out-of-state travelers for another immersion in The School of Prophecy.

Our dear friends Gary and Jane Goodell, Mike and Joy Hubbard and the entire San Diego mob are some of the most delightful pioneers and travelers on this Kingdom journey. Laughter and revelation weave in and out of each other continuously, as this community continues to pursue something more brilliant in Jesus.

Thursday evening began with a “family” meeting of Third Day members. Gary and Graham, along with several others in the Third Day team, gave a context for a new season. Everyone received a copy of newly created value statements for who Third Day is and desires to become. It sparked great insights, questions and dialogue.

I posted a video of Graham’s prophetic word to weary warriors on our TWC Facebook site. If you haven’t heard it, check it out. It was a highlight of the evening.

Friday and Saturday were filled with “Making a Prophetic Impact” sessions. Graham first shared these teachings last year at The Portland Sessions – and already the material is expanding. The delegates were wonderfully engaged and conversations during the breaks were as likely to be on what they had just heard as they were on where to go to lunch!

I doubt that Graham got to a majority of what he had in his notes, but what he and Jesus delivered was powerful. The weekend ended with a prophetic ministry session that was filled with the Father's heart, as well as His freedom-producing true nature. There is as much (if not more) to be learned by listening and watching true New Testament prophecy in action as there is in just the teaching of it. This smaller setting allows for greater interaction and a family feeling that is refreshing. Third Day specializes in creating those atmospheres and Graham and Theresa work exceptionally well in them.

It was also a delight to connect with several current and prospective TWCers. Some were only quick conversations, but Jenny Taylor and I were blessed to be hosted by Diamond Team member, Mara Roberts and her husband Scott. Their near-the-beach guest house was a restful retreat, and our drives together were filled with laughter and an opportunity to get to know each other in a fresh way. Who knew we had a master quilter amongst us, as well as someone who can decorate with surfboards! Thanks so much Mara!

We will return to this community in the fall to continue this adventure. Thank you to all of you who have continued to pray so faithfully for the Third Day community, and all who come to experience The San Diego Sessions.

Leadership Development Training 2016

WALKING WITH NEW MEMBERS

Teresa Morrison

This year we had an amazing time of exploration during our Leadership Development Training 2016. Many were delightfully challenged with the New Member Process which changed August 2015. In this module, we were able to travel through the application process and get a first-hand look into the journey of a New Member.

It's no small task to complete the 6-8 week application process, have a phone or Facetime interview and then enter into a whole new landscape. It's such a joy when I get to introduce a New Member to our community, then see them take their own internal ground as we travel together. I too remember in 2005 feeling the hunger that there was more in the Kingdom that the Lord wanted to show me, so I hear the familiar sound of hunger in their voices wanting to explore a broader Kingdom.

One common theme that I hear from our New Members is their desire to learn how to unpack prophetic words, navigate through life with what God is doing and step into their true identity. There have been many who have commented that Graham put language to how they knew God on the inside, which caused the Holy Spirit to quicken them, and lead them to the doorstep of TWC. We've had over 70 New Members since last August, and they are hitting the ground focused, ready to journey on a new adventure with a community of Warriors!

Thank you to the participants in Leadership Development Training – you have entered into training with joy and an eagerness to learn. I commend you all!

With joy,
Teresa

Testimony from Judy Austin, Diamond Team

I was on the Module 3 call this morning. The first question was to name three keys we received from this module. One person said that there is such a hunger to go deeper... TWC is so rich and deep, especially in "Living On A Higher Place." Some strategies I gained in this module were the brilliant questions to use from the CD. How it's necessary to take smaller steps and break things down, rather than trying to take on huge chunks at one time. Also, how in higher places we need to be healed before climbing to them as healing won't happen in higher altitudes. So much more! Thank You, God, Teresa, Allison and all those who go before us team leaders!

*"Each TWC leader is also blazing new ground for their own team to follow."

Turning a Crafted Prayer into a Song

Anysia Derora
TWC Trailblazers

The Warrior Class has been a place of tremendous growth, revelation and stretching. I no longer prefer my comfort zone – I prefer the climb, the battle, the acclimation of going higher and deeper with God. I prefer discovering the beauty of His nature; the depth of His love; the power and grace of His majesty. Since joining TWC in August of 2015 my life has been turned upside down. Battles I once ran from, I now run to, after consulting the Holy Spirit. My vocabulary has changed drastically – I seek to speak the language of promise, the language of inheritance, the language of the Kingdom and I’ve been amazed at how one word or statement or song from God can change everything.

I’ve discovered at TWC that I am not alone in my pursuit of God and the Kingdom; not alone in my thirst to be on the frontlines in this clash between two Kingdoms but instead am a part of a mighty company of people passionate and zealous for our King and His Kingdom being revealed on earth as it is in heaven.

Each time I log on to Facebook, read another book, listen to another CD, work on another assignment I’m challenged to think differently, to ask better questions, to seek greater upgrades and to intentionally enjoy the journey. I’m learning to differentiate between who I am and what I do; and to delight in the being while allowing the doing to flow from that place. I’m daring to dig where the X marks the spot and not just settle for what I see on the surface. I’m giving myself permission to develop deeply and to cast off those things that I was once defined by but am no longer. I’m slowing down and savoring the moments; breathing deeply and enjoying the glory all around me.

I’d say one of the most profound ways that TWC has changed my life and my relationship with God is in my prayer life. While I’ve almost always written my prayers or even sang them, I’ve discovered an amazing beauty in learning the songs God is singing over me and crafting a response, which becomes a prayerful declaration of what He is singing over me; a song of agreement that empowers me to walk in what He is seeing and saying. Below is one example of that from an adventure day with the Lord in September 2015. I listened to His song, recorded Him singing it and then crafted my response. My hope in sharing it is that it will bless and encourage each of you who reads it just as it has blessed me.

I was made to dance on water
Made to sing above the storm
I was made to proclaim freedom
Made to show the world Your heart

You made me Your own
You made me Your own
And You delight to see my days
To lead me in Your ways
As I become
More and more like You

I was made to dance on water
Made to sing above the storm
I was made to proclaim freedom
Made to show the world Your heart

You made me unique
You made me free
You made me; You made me
You made me
To know You
And oh how I love to know You

---

God has used TWC to demonstrate His great love for me and to show me His absolute commitment to seeing me become the woman He created me to be – and I am grateful beyond words for every moment I’ve experienced so far and I am looking forward with great anticipation to all the moments to come. ~ Anysia

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT:

Mariette Vermooten

Pioneer Team

About me ~

Hello! My name is Mariette Vermooten. God has called us as a family to move from beautiful South Africa to Newfoundland in Canada with the promise: “You will become a Godly family there.” Just like Abraham, we have been called to leave everyone and everything behind and trust the Lord for the road ahead. What a journey! I've been married to Arnold (26 years), my best friend and greatest encourager. We have three beautiful children, Kruger (24), Marli (21), and Anri (19).

From the first time I heard Graham speak at a conference in Houston Texas, I knew that I had to listen to more of his teachings. I was astonished at what I heard. I started a life changing journey, and lives around me are also transformed because of the goodness of God in my life. We love the younger generation, and once a week we have a group at our home, doing Game-Changers. (Aglow International, teaching of Graham Cooke).

Becoming the Beloved:

I'm living in astonishment since I have discovered that I'm God's Beloved. That was and still is one of the most freeing experiences ever. God is looking at me through the eyes of Christ Jesus and I am totally accepted. I'm in awe of His love and excitement for me. I'm inseparably intertwined with Papa. Heaven is vital, not the natural world. My mind is set on things above and I am free to operate by heavens wisdom. I live in trust, faith and obedience. I'm radiant, powerful, immovable because I AM lives inside of me. I represent Him in all His glory. I expectantly receive all His love, and I am living in His fullness. Therefore, I am overflowing on His people. I have a trained mind and I think in abundance. Everything is 'yes and amen' for me. There is a hedge of protection around me, my family and friends. I have His fullest attention and I intentionally choose to be joyful and in complete rest and peace, knowing that He is giving me ALL things that I still lack in myself. Glory to God!!!

What part of God's nature are you discovering?

God is unceasingly, relentlessly Faithful towards me. He is showing me this on a daily basis. Since I've started The Warrior Class, God has healed our son from a three-year depression, turned my youngest daughter from being my greatest grace grower into, “Mom you are my best friend.” She also has been set free from an emotionally destroying relationship. Glory to God! She is in a very difficult course and needed a lot of encouragement and was very negative about herself and the course. This week, without me saying something encouraging, she told me, “I can do this!” What an enormous breakthrough!! I'm living in dependency and wonder! My dad has been healed of Alzheimer's disease. What a journey! I am overwhelmed by Papa's FAITHFULNESS!!! He gave me crafted prayers to pray for each and every situation because the outcome was already there. These are only a few things He did, and still is doing every day in our lives. “Lean on, trust in, and be confident in ME with all your heart and mind and do not rely on your own insight or understanding. In all your ways know, recognize, and acknowledge ME, and I will direct and make straight and plain your paths. Be not wise in your own eyes; reverently fear and worship ME and turn [entirely] away from evil [Prov. 8:13].” Proverbs 3:5-7 AMP (I made it personal, God talking to me.)
