Who We Are

God Makes a Way

By Christine Casten
Executive Director of TWC

A few years ago, I had a vision.

I walked along a path. The mist ahead was thick and the way was shrouded. I could not see anything. I wasn't scared, but was curious. Lord, would You clear the way? He pointed back to my feet.

As I looked down, the mist receding with each step I took. It was easy to see right in front of me. I thought about a step of faith. But as I glanced to the opaque cloud ahead, I started to wonder if the thick fog was because of my own lack we needed to address. The Lord knew my thoughts and said, "I have you in a time when I want you to focus on each step as it comes. I will take care of the future and will reveal more clear vision in the next season. It's not about your lack, but about My preparation for you."

What I learned in that season is this: God's Got THIS! He is so faithful and true. In fact, Faithful and True is one of His names! God's taken me through seasons where I can see a huge expanse and a vista of possibilities before me. He's also hidden my ability to see even a few steps ahead in other seasons.

Sometimes, the storms rage around me and God, in His wisdom, does not allow me to see the clear skies ahead. God's taught me, sometimes I have to go through the storm to be the storm. It is mine to overcome with His peace and love. Overcoming it grants authority to speak peace and calm those storms that will someday come.

Many reasons can be shared about the "what this means" portion of those seasons. Some have to do with building reliance on Him to be my Way Maker. Others have to do with making sure I put my hand to things of the moment.

He sets out to build a strong foundation in me. This sometimes requires a limited sight so I will not be distracted or miss the treasures of the moment by wishing away what's coming.

Not seeing clearly was a protection for my heart. My ability to "not know" what was coming allowed me to enter into that season without hesitation or fear for the battle or negative "what if" contingencies.

The deeper enriching (through this process) came as God built a deep place of trust in Him. No matter what is visible or hidden, each of us can be assured God makes a way every moment of every day.

In those times when nothing is clear, prophecies have yet to pass, or we hold on to hope for what is to come, this trust is part of our warrior mindset. Trust in Him acts as a shield against “hope deferred making us sick.” It opens a way to be encouraged, renewed and hope-filled.

Trust is the strong siege tower creating breakthrough from any enemy fortress or obstacle in my path.

Overcoming is a statement of fact. It’s a matter of when, not if. His hand is not too short and is always moving to bring the right timing to pass. I will, you will, overcome. We are overcomers!

God creates a way through. Always. He clears the path. He takes my hand and leads me down it. I do not have to waver, no matter how thick the fog, power of the storms or clarity of vista ahead. At the beginning, middle and end of the day. God’s Got this! God makes a way.

Rejoice Along the Way

On our journey to explore true intimacy with God, we sooner or later encounter circumstances that seem to challenge our faith and Who God is for us, until we realize that we are really being challenged by the goodness of God. That paradox in the Kingdom of “in the world you will have trouble” and “I have overcome the world” from John 16:33 becomes evident. God blesses us to be in Christ and overcome like Jesus but some days don’t feel that way.

TWC’s self-paced training gives you the freedom to explore more of Who God is for you and who you are in the overcoming in a way that fits you best. It provides process for you to receive upgrades for your “in the world” challenges. In James 1:2-4 and Romans 5:3-5, we’re encouraged to rejoice in our trials. Our TWC training can help with putting these encouragements into practice. You are an overcomer in the making and Father God is lovingly making a way for you to be able to rejoice and even enjoy whatever “in the world” stuff comes your way.

That was my experience last June when I chose to be intentional about finishing up training I was in. Because of other commitments it was taking way longer than the suggested time frame. Even though the month of June had huge transitions going on in my family and work, the Holy Spirit was nudging me to make my TWC training a part of the journey. I was amazed at how God used that training during that time to open up my eyes to Who He wanted to be for me through those transitions. I loved being able to see the evidences of transformation God made a way for through the training. Partnering with God to be who He made me to be while He was making a way being Who He is became fun making space for the rejoicing.

How does Holy Spirit show up for you in the midst of your “in the world” troubles? Who has He shown you that you are in the overcoming? Why not considered that your current TWC training might be just what you need for your right now, or your what’s next? God always makes a way for us to be victorious, an overcomer like Jesus, and to rejoice in His being Who He says He is along the way.

The Way Maker

Wendy Jitta

Sometimes, when we look ahead of us, the way seems dismal, blurry and uncertain. Which way do we go? Is there even a way? Early in our Warrior journey, it's so easy, when situations become tough, for us to give in and become depressed or discouraged. As we train, we turn to God in prayer and He whispers softly to us, "I will make a way for you."

Who is this God whom we so passionately serve?

Who is He really? Is He strong enough to make a way for us? Are His arms Mighty to embrace us and keep us safe? Psalm 91: 1-2 tells us:

*¹He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.*

*²I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress;
My God, in Him I will trust."*

God desires to see our trust in Him, He delights in seeing our faith grow. I love the words of the song "God will Make a Way" by Don Moen:

"God will make a way where there seems to be no way,
He works in ways we cannot see,
He will make a way for me...."

We may not always see clearly what God is up to but we must trust Him with all of our heart. Isaiah 55:8-9 declares:

*⁸"For My thoughts are not your thoughts,
Nor are your ways My ways," says the Lord.*

*⁹"For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
So are My ways higher than your ways,
And My thoughts than your thoughts.*

I've been experiencing some really tough times.

Now, with enlightened eyes, I see that Papa had taken me on a journey of building my faith to tremendous proportions!

It was a choice I had to make: give in to fear or hold on to the Rock of my Salvation. I have been tested and I have been found faithful. Now I want to tell the world that just as He parted the Red Sea for Moses, He will make a way for us! He is our Way Maker.

you.*

TWC Training

by Christine Casten

God makes a way through everything in our lives, creating a training ground for us. These experiences invite us into greater intimacy with Him and call us up into more maturity. We can only give away what we, ourselves, have gained.

In thinking about the website upgrades and recent technology issues, God pointed out how the whole experience is a prophetic picture for TWC of how process enriches our TWC Tribe. We are a prototype, at the forefront of this transition to this new era in the Church.

Everything we walk through is important. It all is a type and foreshadow of how we are rising, along with the territory we are taking, scouting and exploring for the coming move of God.

As we explore our new identity of “Transition Specialists,” it’s a no brainer that we get to transition in technology, too. Amazingly enough, with the spiritual battle we have experienced in technology – can we just say that’s an indicator of the HUGE promise we have in this area??? Keep those prayers going...they are working!

We have the delight of being excited about how God is transforming our lives. Naturally, we want to share it with others. Our culture of encouragement means our tribe helps each other. This encouragement comes with words and extends through boosting others through scholarships. This passion created a need for new innovation in “referral rewards.”

Our own transformation helps us re-imagine and bring Kingdom to earth. It’s easy to create a special gift for a referral, but it is not “typical” coding to choose to keep that gift, give it away to a specific person or offer it to a general scholarship fund.

With regards to the specialized videos tab: The new video section offers a way to live out our upgrades and share our voices as we pour out of our overflow.

- How often are we challenged to transition words and phrases we use in TWC to share with others?
- How often are we asked to pinpoint what makes us think differently?
- How are we able to stay in grace and see the world through God’s eyes?

The hope with this specialized video section is to open this door. It’s a way for our warriors, who have accepted God’s invitation to deeper relationship, to offer the invitation God has on hand to deeper intimacy in Christ to others.

This video platform is not for personal gain, but a way to testify and train; pointing ourselves and others towards God’s heart. Through it, we battle performance and help the body rise up on a broader scale, taking freedoms we have gained and passing them on to others.

When we step back, we can see how our transformation as a community is taking new territory for the body of Christ. The website offered a prophetic picture for us for the new territory before us. God is a creative genius. This is a good life. The Warrior Class is a prototype for this coming age. TWC is an exciting place to be!

A Buddy Group For Your “Port of Call”

Join us in a grand experiment!
We hope you will help us out!

The week of August 19th, we will post a poll on Facebook. This poll will list the eight prophetic ID words (Our “Ports of Call”) from Training Days. (below)

We will pin the post at the top of the Facebook page. You will be asked to answer the poll by *Clicking on 1 of the 8 prophetic words God highlighted for your Port of Call. After a few weeks, we will collect the names with each word and begin creating Warrior Buddy groups.

The groups will meet 1-3 times from September – November. You will get to connect, explore and unpack through your Port of Call word (from Training Days) with your group!

At the end of that time, we will hear back from you on what worked and what needs an upgrade in the process. We plan to have new groups in 2020.

*If you were not at Training Days in May, check on Training Journal Momentum, #18, beginning on page 14) on our website under Resources/Training Journals. Ask God which word resonates with your heart the most. Then go on Facebook and answer the poll. Or, if you are not a Facebook user, send in your information (including which prophetic ID you connect to) and we will make sure you are included in a group. Send to twc.memberservices@gmail.com

Joyce Bertoch

About you – My name is Joyce and I live in Kansas with my husband and daughter. Almost 5 years ago, I made a choice to follow Jesus out of a comfortable, successful ministry environment. Little did I know how much He wanted to transform me from the inside out. It took several years of watching pieces of my life slip away before I reached the very bottom.

At that place, I joined TWC in 2018, I began to realize God had so much more for me. He wanted to take me to a place higher than I could imagine, the promise He gave me when I followed Him. I began to see myself as He sees me. He enabled me to trust. I began to learn that He ALWAYS has good for me in every situation! He showed me how to follow Holy Spirit instead of my own reasoning when making decisions.

Today, I walk in so much glorious freedom every single day. I marvel at His wisdom. I am so, so excited to see what He has for this next journey of climbing and freedom!

What part of God's nature are you discovering? I am discovering God as Emmanuel. He is with me in any situation – and that makes all the difference. Because He is with me, He watches over me and I see the freedom He desires! When I bring His presence into any struggle, it displaces the negative emotions. I then can see His wisdom and heart for the situation and begin to move into that! It is the place in which I have longed to live - finally coming to pass!

Share some of your Identity Statements: I AM AND AM BECOMING...

I am His beautiful creation, deeply known, intricately woven and established. My Savior understands me in the deepest way possible (Psalm 139).

I am a treasured victorious Bride, of the Mighty Warrior of Israel basking in His songs of deliverance over me. No matter what comes against me, He ALWAYS fights for me (Zeph 3:17-20)

I am a strategic wall builder for my family and the communities around me. I equip others to build walls for their communities and enable them to have a passion for intercession. (Nehemiah 2:17)

I am God's ambassador going where He tells me to go, doing what He says to do, and saying what He commands. I pull down systems only to build them up on a solid foundation so that they will stand and glorify my King (Jeremiah 1).

I am a lover of the unfathomable ways of God. I love looking at situations and circumstances from His perspective and bringing that new perspective to others (Romans 11:33-36).

How are you growing in Becoming the Beloved....

Three of my identity statements are about my value in and to Him. In short, I am beautiful, treasured, and contented. Each are tied to passages of Scripture. I have very intentionally spent time receiving, declaring, and journaling in these passages for the past 6 months. As I have grown in my belief of these statements, I go deeper in understanding how beloved I am.

I am in Him. He is in me.
Together we are.....
